

High performance. Delivered.

Since joining the European Union in 2004, the Polish economy has been very stable creating an excellent business climate. Today, Poland is recognized as a prime location for timely provision of on-shore services to clients across Europe and the rest of the world. Accenture has a long-standing presence in Poland, having opened its first office there in 1993. In 2004 the Accenture Delivery Center in Warsaw was opened to take advantage of the multiple benefits the country offers.
