

Accenture & Cisco Business Group

Distinctive, network-enabled solutions to drive sustainable business agility

High performance. Delivered.

IT can be a strategic asset: a winning direction to save money today and thrive tomorrow

Shrinking budgets and profit pressures can lead to a tactical trap—one that stalls innovation and leaves you with old-hat, mainstream technologies. And the winners? They're using IT strategically, right now: cost-effectively making the most of their technology investments and readying the entire business for next-generation, productivity-enhancing tools. That's exactly what we can help you do.

A faster route to business agility

Tap into a think tank like no other

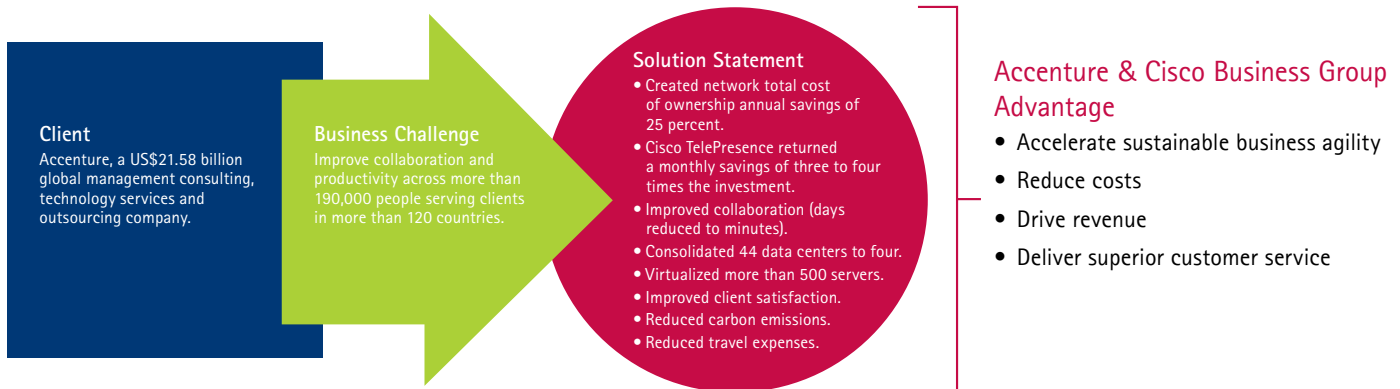

Accenture and Cisco have teamed up to design innovative, yet evolutionary solutions to make your business more agile. We blend our respective front-runner insights and decades of experience to bring you new and better ways to cost-effectively advance how your business uses IT to get things done.

Transition with confidence and speed

Offering a single point of contact, we partner with you to assess your unique business needs and competitive landscape. We help you make the best decisions, easing the introduction of new technology innovations. Armed with proven methods and a practical roadmap, we'll guide you every step of the way...so you can avoid pitfalls, reduce risks and speed delivery of the bottom line-improving results you're looking for.

Weave technology into the very fabric of how you do business

We are adamant: technology and business processes must be interwoven. We help make your new tools pervasive, so they work for everyone on your product-launching, sales-driving and customer-serving teams—and in fact, your entire organization. That's what drives agility and helps you outpace competitors.
