

High performance. Delivered.

In His Own Words: Anand Swaminathan

I'm often asked what I'm passionate about. A few things come to mind.

First, my family. I treasure every moment I get to spend with them.

Second, my health. I love triathlons, heli-skiing, and doing things that keep me fit.

Third, technology. The world is changing at a pace faster than ever before. And technology is at the core of helping improve how we work and live.

And finally, Accenture. Every day, I get to work with incredibly talented people, all around the world, who are passionately solving complex problems for our clients. And I work with leading organizations and governments who are helping make the world a better place for their employees, their citizens, and their customers.

These are my passions.
