Jie Min: Hi Everyone, My name is Jie Min. I graduated from SMU School of Business and I'm from the first batch of TAP.

Simon: Hi, I'm Simon, and I graduated from the SMU School of Business and I'm part of the first batch of TAP.

Shamini: Hello everyone, I'm Shamini, and I graduated from SMU School of Social Sciences and I'm from the 2nd batch of TAP.

3 words / Which 3 words / That's quite difficult to summarize / Let me think

Shamini: So Simon, why did you write "exciting"?

Simon: You know it has been an exciting adventure for me so far. I have had the chance to work closely and collaborate with my business lead to create value for our people.

Can't agree more / Yes

Wow / Most memorable / That's so many / Ya / Many to choose from / Where should I start from

Simon: So Jie Min, "people programs that made a difference"?

Jie Min: Yup, in HR, we get to empower the future of our people

Wow

Jie Min: Shamini, tell me more about your business rotation?

Shamini: My recent business stint with the health and public service sector was so great as I got a taste of what a consulting business is actually like

Hmm, I think that is kind of easy / Quite easy / Are you thinking what I'm thinking / Think we're all the same

Shamini: That's our global rotation

Yup

Shamini: Jie Min, where are you headed to for your global rotation?

Jie Min: So I will be flying off shortly to London for my next rotation which is with HR Ventures and Acquisitions

Nice / So exciting

Simon: Would you like to experience this exciting journey with us?

Jie Min: Come join us and tap into the future
