

BE YOURSELF, MAKE A DIFFERENCE

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Gary Technology consultant

Question: Hi Gary, we are curious...What is about innovation and launching startups that excite you?

Gary: When you start from scratch and you see that it takes form, it goes in the good direction or not but at least you learn from it and when it reaches the expected results It's such an achievement!

Question: Why Accenture?

Gary: It was a tough question when I had to choose because I had a startup called 'RiskAlert'. And I decided to go to Accenture because I missed some technological skills and some management skills and I still learn everyday, I'm surrounded by more clever people than I am so I learn from them. I don't regret my choice.

Question: What do you appreciate the most at Accenture?

Gary: I would say their values, because they have the same values that I have: respecting the others, embrace the difference and trying to learn everyday more, that's a bit what I think it's important.

Question: What is your ultimate goals in life?

Gary; Becoming a teacher of entrepreneurship, helping student to launch their own start-up, also doing some social work, helping the less fortunate
