Joining Forces with FusionX

Matt Devost
Managing Director, Accenture Security Cyber Defense
Co-Founder and CEO of FusionX

I'm primarily a builder of things as an entrepreneur who's built several companies. And what I really liked about joining Accenture was the alignment of our vision with where the industry and security services need to go with theirs, and the opportunity to come in and not build just out the FusionX capability but build out the broader Accenture Security practice.
