

Hi, I am Christina Wong, Head of Accenture Mgmt Consulting, Greater China.

Accenture Consulting guides our clients as they transform their organizations to deliver services at the speed and scale the new digital world demands.

At Accenture Mgmt Consulting, you would have the chance to help these big org navigate growth and expansion, manage their compliance and risks, transform their biz functions or increase cost efficiency. Our capabilities cover four major areas:

- Customer & Channel
- Finance & Enterprise Performance
- Talent and Organization Perf
- Supply Chain & Operations

In the digital world, every company needs to experience constant evolution and transformation of customer experience, talent and operating model, supply chain & enterprise operations.

We help our clients revisit their end-to-end operating model and workforce model to align with new business directions namely regional expansion, go digital, robotic process automation, etc.

Our goal is to become the largest management consulting firm in Greater China.

Our consulting business is growing extremely well in the past few years. We aim to support more regional multinationals who intend to further expand and strengthen their footprint in Asia especially Greater China.

Therefore, we need more local talents who understand local culture and have regional exposure.

Management consulting is a CAREER TO CREATE THE FUTURE. It surly isn't an easy job.

Therefore, we need high performers who have relevant exposure, and most importantly creativity to turn ordinary concepts into something meaningful to our clients.

We need people who aren't afraid of challenges, and be able to stay calm, manage priorities and pressures during tough times.

If you are such type of high performers, I dearly invite you to submit your CV to us. In summary, Accenture is a great company. See you soon!
