It was very refreshing to see that innovation DOES NOT STOP even in these tough times. All of the 6 finalists presented great solutions for our shipping industry which won't only improve the supply chain from the shippers point of view, but will also have very positive impact on everyone involved - including our final customers.

Marek Hochman, Project Lead at ABInBev

The F&L European Innovation Award was an important update to the latest in innovations in the digitalization era – simple marketplaces and new modes of transportation aiming at technology-driven reductions in transaction cost competing with specialized solutions that focus on resolving existing inefficiencies and painpoints of the logistics industry.

Sebastian Esser, CFO, Logwin

I thank you and all the Accenture team for this great event and for having us present!

Top quality, smart people, great organization: this was very Accenture like!
