

INCLUSION & DIVERSITY: ANDREW'S IDENTITY STORY

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Text on screen Everyone has a story. My ID minute. Andrew Pearce.

Andrew [00:00:13] I was put up for adoption at 10 days old. And my parents were white, and this was in the Sixties. I didn't really appreciate the social - I'll use the word toxicity - that they endured at that time in adopting a black baby. I always felt safe because of the support I had from my family and my friends

Text on screen Diversity is a fact. Inclusion is a choice.

Andrew [00:00:51] My story is my story. But my passion for change is not about me. It's about who comes after me.
