

INCLUSION & DIVERSITY: CARYN'S IDENTITY STORY

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Caryn [00:00:13] I think identity is such a complex thing, even without the complexity that my identity (geographical identity) brings. Being born in Malaysia of Chinese descent, and then growing up in Australia brings so much like stuff to who I am, what that means to me as a person and the way that I see things and value things. My motto is holistic living, how do I make everything that I do have impact in the way that I want to have impact.
