

INTELLIGENT SKILLING ACCELERATOR

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

The world of work is being reimagined.

Roles are becoming:
Skill based Flexible Entrepreneurial

But when asked whether they're supported, only 35% of public service employees agreed their agencies provided the training to build future skills.

Some organisations have started but is everyone on board?

Limited Labour Market Insights
Rigid role-based structures
Limited creativity and innovation

are all barriers to inclusive, supportive flexible working and learning.

Can you navigate the changes...

and achieve your vision of proactive, future-oriented, targeted learning?

The Accenture Intelligent Skilling Accelerator

A unique, public service industry-focused offering, in partnership with Skyhive.

A new way to identify and build:
skills you have
skills you need today
skills you want for tomorrow.

Accelerate employee learning

Optimise skill management

Begin the journey towards the future of work.

Unlock the skills in your public service organisation
