Accenture research reveals that artificial intelligence (AI) could nearly double Singapore’s annual economic growth rates by 2035, opening up opportunities to create new value and reinforcing the role of people to drive growth in business.

AI Can Double Growth Rates

A comparison of baseline annual gross value added growth (%) in 2035 to a scenario where AI has been absorbed.

AI Helps People Be More Productive 41%

AI建立 a new relationship between people and machines, creating new factors of productivity and growth.

AI Can Double Economies’ Size

Number of years for the economy to double in size (a full circle represents 100 years)

AI Solves Key Business Challenges

AI establishes a new relationship between people and machines, creating new factors of productivity and growth.