

Meet Kathline

I started playing tennis when I was 10 years old. I was ranked 1 in the state of Tennessee, 58th in the south and 128 in the region.

Tennis taught me different initiatives: being resilient, being out there by myself, picking up skills fast. That's kind of where I get my drive from.

As a consultant, I have to use a lot of those same traits. I have to be independent. I have to be self-motivated. I have to be agile.

My job is to ensure client data's safety. I am in charge of encrypting data so that in case any intruders do get into the network, that data can't be breached.

My name is Kathline Durden and I am a cyber security defense specialist at Accenture.

BE YOURSELF, MAKE A DIFFERENCE.
