ALIP Portal

Video/Podcast Transcript

In today's digital, "got to have it now" economy, consumers want direct, twenty-four seven access to their policy information, and they want to conduct business without having to contact their agent or the call center. Through ALIP Portal you're able to meet these demands. Because ALIP Portal has a modern, graphic user interface consumers will find it easy to navigate and simple to conduct policy self-services. And through its "mobile first" design, consumers can leverage any device of their choice, while you enjoy "once and done" changes.

ALIP Portal will help you enhance your customer experience by quickly introducing self-service capabilities. And not only is it integrated with the market leading ALIP platform, it also integrates with any 3rd party administration system.
