

HIGHLIGHTS: INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2018

Video Transcript

Female: Hey Everyone.

Male: Hey Everyone.

Female: Hi everyone, my name is Vanessa.

Female: It's minus 9 here in Calgary, on my way to the International Women's Day event.

Female: Today, I'm meeting to go to the French event.

Female Group: Happy Women's Day from Bangalore!

Male: Australia.

Female: Frankfurt.

Female: Austin.

Female: Recording out of the Boston office

Male: Here we are in London, and it's minus 6 today, so it's really cold.

Female: I'm about to go to my first Accenture IWD event.

Female: It's finally the big day.

Male: Right now, I'm coming up on the Indianapolis state capitol. It's going to be a great day.

Male and Female group: Happy International Women's Day!

Female: This is the big auditorium.

Female panel: Stand your ground. Know your worth. Get in the room. Drive the conversation. Show the command that you all have.

Male: The first time I picked my daughter up in my arms, everything changed.

Male: How can we get them closer to equal.

Female: This day is a great opportunity to get the community together to really challenge some of our assumptions on unconscious biases.

Female: Unconscious bias happens by our brains making incredibly quick judgements.

Female: At Accenture, our people can truly bring themselves to work.

Female: I think we have a bright future for women at Accenture.

Video Transcript cont.

Female: It's that inner confidence that really helps you promote yourself.

Female: What I love at Accenture is the diversity of people we have.

Male: We are really leaders in diversity.

Male: Diverse teams do better work.

Female: Not only have we increased the number of women that have been part of the conversation, but we have also been able to increase the number of men.

Male: Hugely inspirational, funny, humbling, quite frankly.

Female: I've learned so much from the other speakers, it's fantastic.

Female: Very good day indeed.

Male: It's been a pleasure. That's the end of the sessions for us. We're going to get some work done, and we'll see you later.
