ELEVATE EXPERIENCE

ELEVATE YOUR THINKING

12 HOURS

EXPERIENCE A DAY IN A LIFE OF AN ACCENTURE CONSULTANT

Kung Ven Sze: "Accenture Malaysia is really into transforming and also influencing the manner in terms of how Malaysia works and lives."

Dionne Bain: "The Accenture Elevate Experience is something totally new in the space of recruitment. We are looking to bring in some new innovation and try incorporate the life of a consultant as part of the recruitment process. I think we get a lot of new hires who comes in as fresh graduate who has no idea what they are coming in for when they joined Accenture. So we are giving them a taste of that today so in extension Malaysia is what we are looking at focusing how we can improve the way Malaysians works and lives. And today with Project 57 we are trying to see how we can bring a digitized solution into the mix and see how they can bring sustainable unity to our youth in Malaysia."

Kung Ven Sze: "Candidates will definitely be able to be exposed to being able to deliver their best, showcasing their potential in regards to innovation, creativity, thinking out of the box."

Yap Poh Hean: "They started with business challenges and all so they get to speak to the client and they get to learn the Accenture methodology to go through the entire framework on how to address problems, how to speak and how to get information out of client. So basically a whole spectrum of how Accenture usually meet the client and do problem solving for the client."

Tang Chun How: "Adaptability is something that's very key in terms of shaping the right consulting mindset, Also I think attitude is far above aptitude being able to grow with the condition, being able to stretch, grow and really push the boundaries of what we feel is conventional will really enable them to embrace what it means to be a consultant in Accenture."

Dionne Bain: "I think the way of campus experience in the past where you have booths being set up, candidates coming in, submitting your CVs – those days are long gone. People are now looking at having digitized solutions, they want stuff on their phones, they want stuff on the internet and the sort of what we are bringing to them today. Things that are hot, up-and-coming in the market and we are hoping that will also energize them and give them a better sense of what it's like to really be in Accenture and be part of that movement that takes them forward and we also want to remember that you are bringing in truly human elements even though we are working really hard, we play really hard as well."
