

DEFENSE HIGHLIGHT

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Narrator: The world around us is accelerating. New technologies are fueling the next wave of mission capabilities, changing the way we live, work, and defend our nation. At Accenture Federal Services, we are leading in the new, harnessing the power of disruption to deliver the solutions you need to accelerate advantage now and ensure mission readiness.

00:00:34 Human centered design is at the heart of all that we do, ensuring the solutions we deliver meet the real expectations of the men and women who depend on them. Today, through a virtual reality solution, we are enabling pilots to visualize, refine, brief and rehearse their combat missions before they strap in their jets.

00:00:55 It's an innovative approach that has transformed mission planning into an immersive, multi domain, multi participant, 3D environment. Today we are automating intelligence for the war fighter with video analytics and data fusion, extracting insights from multiple sources for a holistic operating picture, including video feeds from CCTV, UAV, or open source IOT sensors, environmental factors forecasts and social media.

00:01:24 Today we are shifting the cyber balance of power away from our adversaries and enabling our clients to engage in the proactive defense measures needed to hunt, defend and outmaneuver adversaries. Today we are accelerating our military advantage by putting critical health insights into the hands of commanders and power into the hands of our soldiers through a precision health insight tool, a smart device that leverages analytics, big data and advanced visualizations for a holistic view of both individual and unit readiness before deployment. and provides an instant view of force readiness.

00:02:02 Today we are supporting the men and women who serve our nation by creating ways for them to seamlessly connect to the information, tools, and people they depend on to be successful in their everyday lives. We are leading in the new now, harnessing the power of disruption and putting it to work to accelerate advantage.

00:02:23 We are bringing the power of Accenture's global community of experts and advanced technology, billions of dollars of investment in research and development, and strategic alliances and partnership together to serve your mission today. Let's discover what new looks like for you.

00:02:51 [End of recording.]
