"Lisbon is wonderful".

"Lisbon is amazing".

Accenture Operations Lisbon

Caio Vieira: "What attracted me to work in Accenture in Lisbon, is the opportunity in an amazing company, a worldwide company".

Susana Novais: "The most interesting thing to me in my role is being stimulated to work in what I am really good at and to be able to learn with all the people here".

Marta Delgado Cuesta: "One of the bigger challenges, I think the role has, is that I have to apply all the knowledge I got during my life, during my career, and my studies, and everything in this particular job".

José Neto: "By being an LGBT Ally, that means that we are committed to assuring a diverse workspace to all of our employees".

Work in the heart of innovation at Accenture

Susana Novais: "I think I bring value because I think differently and to be honest, the most of us think differently and we are allowed to do that and we are allowed to work based on that".

José Neto: "I feel that I bring innovation to my work by thinking outside the box and by having a diverse background".

Marta Delgado Cuesta: "I think I can bring innovation to my daily job because I am kind of new, I have a fresh point of view".

Caio Vieira: "Innovation for me it's future. Innovation for me is something that we cannot avoid and we have to be ready for the future".
