Client has the right to approve any settlement that affirmatively places on Client an obligation that has a material adverse effect on Client other than the obligations to cease using the affected Service(s) or to pay sums indemnified under this Section. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

7.2 If the Service(s) are found to infringe, or if Accenture determines in Accenture's sole opinion that the Service(s) are likely to be found to infringe, then Accenture will either: (i) obtain for Client the right to continue to use the Service(s); or (ii) modify the Service(s) (including, if applicable, any Service Component(s)) so as to make it non-infringing, or replace it with a non-infringing equivalent substantially comparable in functionality, and in the case of infringing Service Component(s), Client will stop using any infringing version of such Service Component(s); or, if Accenture determines in its sole opinion that "(i)" and/or "(ii)" are not reasonable, Accenture may (iii) terminate Client's rights and Accenture's obligations under the Agreement with respect to such Service(s), and in such case shall refund to Client the pre-paid fees for the relevant Service(s). Therefore, in addition to any and all remedies available at law, Discloser will be entitled to seek an injunction or other equitable remedies in all legal proceedings in the event of any threatened or actual violation of any or all of the provisions. Subject to the terms of the Agreement: (i) Discloser may request the return of Confidential Information; (ii) or upon termination or completion of the Agreement or any Service(s), Recipient will either return (if technically feasible to do so) or destroy the Confidential Information and upon request of Discloser, will certify such destruction.
