

Accenture adquiere Wolox e impulsa las capacidades de Cloud First y Transformación Digital en Argentina y Sudamérica

BUENOS AIRES; 18 de enero de 2021 – Accenture (NYSE: ACN) adquirió Wolox, una empresa argentina, nativa en Cloud y dedicada al desarrollo Agile, que proporciona soluciones digitales para ayudar a los clientes a lograr resultados de negocios exitosos.

De izquierda a derecha: Agustina Fainguersch, fundadora y CEO de Wolox, y Sergio Kaufman, presidente de Accenture Argentina.

Fundada en 2012 el equipo de Wolox, compuesto por más de 280 profesionales, se especializa en servicios integrados que incluyen el diseño de negocios y la creación de productos digitales, trabajando en forma integrada con equipos ágiles.

“La adquisición de Wolox aporta habilidades diferenciales para Accenture, ya que el equipo combina de manera singular desarrollos nativos en cloud con diseño y tecnologías de vanguardia para lograr transformaciones de negocios,” señaló Karthik Narain, líder global de Accenture Cloud First. “Wolox cuenta con equipos multidisciplinarios de expertos en negocios y en diferentes industrias, desarrolladores UX/UI, diseñadores de software, arquitectos e ingenieros, y juntos, estamos ahora mejor equipados para ayudar a los clientes a aprovechar la experiencia tecnológica y el ingenio humano que impulsa la manera de innovar de Accenture.”

La incorporación del equipo de Wolox mejora las capacidades globales de Accenture Cloud First, un equipo multiservicio que proporciona todo el espectro de servicios cloud para ayudar a los clientes de cada industria a acelerar su transformación digital, innovar más rápidamente y crear valor diferencial y sostenible. Con el respaldo de más de 70.000 profesionales cloud y una inversión de USD 3.000 millones en los próximos 3 años, este equipo reúne una amplitud y profundidad incomparable de experiencias en cloud, soluciones para las diferentes industrias, capacidades relacionadas con los socios de los ecosistemas y activos que ayudan a los clientes a obtener mayor valor a partir de las migraciones a cloud, con velocidad y a escala.

“Al combinar la experiencia global de Accenture con el talento y las capacidades regionales de Wolox, esta adquisición fortalece nuestra capacidad de ayudar a los clientes a acelerar sus transformaciones de negocios usando tecnologías cloud y proporcionando valor mensurable para sus negocios,” señaló Sergio Kaufman, presidente de Accenture Argentina y Sudamérica Hispana. Integraremos Wolox en todos los servicios de Accenture, que incluyen Estrategia y Consultoría, Soluciones Interactivas, Tecnología y Operaciones, para poder proporcionar valor de 360 grados para nuestros clientes, profesionales, accionistas, socios y comunidades en general.”

Agustina Fainguersch, fundadora y CEO de Wolox señaló: “Desde 2012, el foco de WOLOX ha sido transformar las industrias a través de la tecnología. Al incorporarnos a Accenture, podremos continuar haciéndolo, aumentando aún más nuestra llegada e impacto y de manera más sólida. La combinación de Accenture y Wolox crea una excelente oportunidad para nuestros equipos y clientes. Este es nuestro momento para ayudar a los clientes a solucionar sus desafíos más apremiantes, potenciando el poder de cloud y de las tecnologías de vanguardia.”

Forward-Looking Statements

Except for the historical information and discussions contained herein, statements in this news release may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as “may,” “will,” “should,” “likely,” “anticipates,” “expects,” “intends,” “plans,” “projects,” “believes,” “estimates,” “positioned,” “outlook” and similar expressions are used to identify these forward-looking statements. These statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied. Many of the following risks, uncertainties and other factors identified below are, and will be, amplified by the COVID-19 pandemic. These risks include, without limitation, risks that: the transaction might not achieve the anticipated benefits for Accenture; Accenture’s results of operations have been significantly adversely affected and could in the future be materially adversely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic; Accenture’s results of operations have been, and may in the future be, adversely affected by volatile, negative or uncertain economic and political conditions and the effects of these conditions on the company’s clients’ businesses and levels of business activity; Accenture’s business depends on generating and maintaining ongoing, profitable client demand for the company’s services and solutions including through the adaptation and expansion of its services and solutions in response to ongoing changes in technology and offerings, and a significant reduction in such demand or an inability to respond to the evolving technological environment could materially affect the company’s results of operations; if Accenture is unable to keep its supply of skills and resources in balance with client demand around the world and attract and retain professionals with strong leadership skills, the company’s business, the utilization rate of the company’s professionals and the company’s results of operations may be materially adversely affected; Accenture could face legal, reputational and financial risks if the company fails to protect client and/or company data from security incidents or cyberattacks; the markets in which Accenture operates are highly competitive, and Accenture might not be able to compete effectively; Accenture’s profitability could materially suffer if the company is unable to obtain favorable pricing for its services and solutions, if the company is unable to remain competitive, if its cost-management strategies are unsuccessful or if it experiences delivery inefficiencies or fail to satisfy certain agreed-upon targets or specific service levels; changes in Accenture’s level of taxes, as well as audits, investigations and tax proceedings, or changes in tax laws or in their interpretation or enforcement, could have a material adverse effect on the company's effective tax rate, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition; Accenture's ability to attract and retain business and employees may depend on its reputation in the marketplace; as a result of Accenture's geographically diverse operations and its growth strategy to continue to expand in its key markets around the world, the company is more susceptible to certain risks; Accenture's business could be materially adversely affected if the company incurs legal liability; Accenture's work with government clients exposes the company to additional risks inherent in the government contracting environment; Accenture's results of operations could be materially adversely affected by fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; if Accenture is unable to manage the organizational challenges associated with its size, the company might be unable to achieve its business objectives; if Accenture does not successfully manage and develop its relationships with key alliance partners or fails to anticipate and establish new alliances in new technologies, the company's results of operations could be adversely affected; Accenture might not be successful at acquiring, investing in or integrating businesses, entering into joint ventures or divesting businesses; if Accenture is unable to protect or enforce its intellectual property rights or if Accenture's services or solutions infringe upon the intellectual property rights of others or the company loses its ability to utilize the intellectual property of others, its business could be adversely affected; Accenture's results of operations and share price could be adversely affected if it is unable to maintain effective internal controls; changes to accounting standards or in the estimates and assumptions Accenture makes in connection with the preparation of its consolidated financial statements could adversely affect its financial results; Accenture might be unable to access additional capital on favorable terms or at all and if the company raises equity capital, it may dilute its shareholders' ownership interest in the company; Accenture may be subject to criticism and negative publicity related to its incorporation in Ireland; as well as the risks, uncertainties and other factors discussed under the "Risk Factors" heading in Accenture plc's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and other documents filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission. Statements in this news release speak only as of the date they were made, and Accenture undertakes no duty to update any forward-looking statements made in this news release or to conform such statements to actual results or changes in Accenture's expectations.
