

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

We are the immigrants wandering in search of love, the search of refuge. Our stories amalgamated- regardless of circumstance. We all are painted watercolour. And if we are not inclusive in how we view people, recruit people, promote people, then we're not actually tapping into the full talent pool. As we move to a more equal Ireland, it's imperative that we don't lose sight of the larger challenge, of getting to a more equal world.
