Hello everybody, welcome to Web Summit!

As many world leaders are in COP26 in Glasgow, we are here with the architects of tomorrow.

We will share the solutions to some of the world's present challenges.

As you can see it is an incredible melting pot of the corporate world, innovators, startups, technology, leadership.

Just look at these venues. There are stages spread out in Web Summit campus, tackling several other subjects.

The place is buzzing with activity. I cannot think of a better place to be.

So do join us as we embark on this 3-day journey through this wonderful work of technology and innovation.
