United Nations Global Compact Index

Accenture has been a signatory to the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) since 2008. Accountability and transparency are priorities for Accenture and are part of the foundation on which we build trust with our clients, people, shareholders, partners and communities. As part of our ongoing commitment, we engage with the UNGC's U.K. Network's Modern Slavery Working Group to share and learn best practices to support the elimination of slavery and human trafficking. In addition, Accenture is involved in various UN initiatives and participates in UN Global Compact local networks in several countries.

In this index, we reference existing disclosures from Accenture's United Nations Global Compact: Communication on Progress 2021, which details the impact we made across the following areas: Our Company, Our Clients & Partners, Our Community Impact and Reporting & Data. The report explores our goals, progress and performance across our global operations during fiscal 2021 (ended August 31, 2021), unless otherwise noted.

The information and opinions contained in this index speak only as of the date such information was originally prepared by Accenture, and we undertake no obligation to update them, notwithstanding any historical practice of doing so. This index represents our current policy and intent and is not intended to create legal rights or obligations. This index may contain or incorporate by reference public information not separately reviewed, approved, or endorsed by us and no representation, warranty, or undertaking is made by us as to the accuracy, reasonableness, or completeness of such information. Inclusion of information in this index is not an indication that the subject or information is material to our business or operating results or material to investors or that such information is required to be disclosed in our filings with the SEC. Materiality, as used in this index, is distinct from, and should not be confused with, such term as defined for SEC reporting purposes and the information included in, and any issues identified as material for purposes of, this index may not be considered material for SEC reporting purposes.

This index, as well as Accenture materials or websites that this index references, contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "may," "will," "should," "likely," "promise," "commit," "anticipates," "expects," "intends," "plans," "projects," "targets," "goals," "believes," "estimates," "positioned," "outlook" and similar expressions are used to identify these forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance, involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict and may not prove to be accurate, and, in some cases, are based on standards for measuring progress that are still in development and internal controls and processes that continue to evolve. Actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecast in these forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including assumptions not being realized, scientific or technological developments, evolving sustainability strategies, changes in the nature or scope of our operations, changes in carbon markets, evolving government regulations or other changes in circumstances, as well as the factors set forth under "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in our most recent Form 10-K and subsequent filings with the SEC. The standards of measurement and performance contained in this index are developing and based on assumptions, and no assurance can be given that any plan, initiative, projection, target, goal, commitment, expectation, or prospect set forth in this index can or will be achieved.
