

Accenture Cybersecurity Forum Women's Council

Mission

A global cross-industry security leadership community for established & emerging women leaders

The Accenture Cybersecurity Forum (ACF) Women's Council, a preeminent program of the ACF, is a member-driven group dedicated to facilitating trusted conversations among current and future women leaders in cybersecurity. Members share insights on their own leadership and professional development journeys, and help rising women leaders advance in their careers.

Women's Council by the numbers

4 sessions per year	76+ members	68+ companies
$0 cost to join	15 industries	23+ CISOs	7 countries

Value to members

Join a unique community of your peers who:

Gain leadership insights

Belong to a unique peer community

Develop rising women leaders

Recent topics included:

- Security by Design
- Serving as a resilient security leader during times of disruption
- The perspective of CEO: What it is like to be a woman CEO in cyber
- Pivot to the Cloud: How secure is it?

ACF Women's Council Leadership

Valerie Abend
Accenture Security Managing Director
ACF Women's Council Co-Chair

Lisa O'Connor
Accenture Global Security Research & Development Managing Director
ACF Women's Council Co-Chair

Annabel Jamieson
Accenture Security Innovation Principal
ACF Women's Council Rising Leader

Marisa Boyd
Accenture Security Delivery Manager
ACF Women's Council Rising Leader

Get in touch

Accenture\_CyberForum@accenture.com

Visit us at www.accenture.com/security and on our Accenture Cybersecurity Forum webpage.