So we're very excited to be there.

0:08
We will be showcasing and demoing a wide variety of resources that can be combined with the Clarity modern data platform.

0:16
One of those would be our raw material sourcing supply chain solution which we have seen a ton of interest around in the market.

0:24
Many of our clients need to be able to track the materials that go into their products to ensure on time and full deliveries.

0:32
This is something that's unique to Accenture and something that really gives our clients that end to end view on their production capabilities.

0:42
Another would be highlighting the Gen.

0:45
AI capabilities on top of the Clarity modern data platform specifically as it relates to valuation in a company through cash flow.

0:56
So things like utilizing document generation within Gen.
