

OCTOBER 18: SAMIA TARRAF

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Samia Tarraf [00:00:00] Hi everyone. We are in our first day at CloudWorld. I'm Samia Tarraf. I lead Oracle's business Group at Accenture. It has been a phenomenal morning. Safra Catz kicked us off. She had five different customers on the stage and really demonstrated the power of what Oracle is doing, partnering with all of us together in the market. We are looking forward to hearing from Larry. He's going to be talking about multi-cloud and health care. Our very own Paul Daugherty, our Group Chief Executive at Accenture, presented with Emma McGuigan, our platform leader, talking about the metaverse and composability, and they rounded it out with Amira Rooney, who talked about what Discover has done for their transformation journey. I'm here in the booth, the Accenture booth. If you're out there, join us here. Come and take a selfie with the robot and join us tonight at Bouchon, we'd love to see you for dinner. I'll see you guys tomorrow
