

OCTOBER 19: SAMIA TARRAF

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Samia Tarraf [00:00:00] We are in our second day of CloudWorld and we've changed the venue for you were here in the Datasphere Lounge. It has been a crazy two days. This morning I was reflecting on Safra's keynote and she was talking about being bold, being bold, or you will fail. And that is really coming to life today here at CloudWorld. We heard from Mike Sicilia on revolutionizing health care. He pulled down Larry's themes of how Oracle is partnering with the ecosystem to change the face of health in this world. Andrea Cesarini, our very own, is doing a comms keynote with Jason Rutherford and the teams here at Oracle. We've had over 20 sessions of our various, sold out sessions, with all of our teams here. And tonight we have the very fun Steve Miller Band. If you guys are here, stop by the Datasphere Lounge so we can see you and we'll see you tomorrow. Thank you, everyone.
