

COOLEST JOB EVER

MEET DESHAWNA

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

My name is Deshawn and Grimsley and I work for the coolest company Accenture right now. I am videotaping in my apartment preparing to catch a flight in a few. Basically, I live in DC but I have to travel to North Carolina for my client.

So I'm really excited for you guys to see the day in the life of an analyst, which is what I'm living. Monday through Thursday, and I'm in North Carolina working face to face with the client.

Right now I'm on a change management project where I as a liaison am going in and teaching the client about a new technology and helping them adjust to it.

I love to travel and I get to travel all across, North Carolina for the client that I'm working on which is amazing.

The biggest skill that I'm learning is how to be flexible. Flexibility is so important as a consultant because you have to be able to adjust so whatever changes are coming your way or whatever new challenges you have to face the next week and it's been amazing. It's been teaching me so much about myself.

I have a team that I work with a group of liaisons change management liaisons and it's amazing to work with them and it's really great because we're like a family. When we have birthdays or a days and we are all together in one place we always try to have a team-building activity the last zone that we had was paint night. And so to me, it's like we're a family and it's amazing to work with such a great group.

I chose to work at Accenture because I believe that we have a lot of opportunities to learn or and be around diverse people and I have definitely done that. It's an amazing choice.

I feel very very blessed to be here and to work for the coolest company ever.
