

ANH: SALESFORCE ANALYST

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Anh: Hi, my name is Anh and I am a Salesforce analyst at Accenture.

I actually studied hospitality. Hospitality, I didn't find it as a good fit for me, and I kind of had a hobby in IT before, so I tried to make my way into it.

I was in a boot camp and they actually placed me with Accenture for an interview. Right now I'm on the bench, which means that if you are on any projects you will be placed on a bench. That means if any tasks come up or they will need you, then they will find you. Otherwise, then you're all on your own. Then study by yourself. And there are many courses that Accenture provides.

Well, my usual day at Accenture, I start with my coffee. I usually study on my own. Sometimes I spend time with my senior to go through what I have learned so that I can be more prepared to get a certification.

My goal at Accenture right now is to get to a higher top level. It's a big company. So first thing is the benefits - they give you a lot of things, there are a lot of people there, so you can make a lot of connections and it can help you with progressing. I would say it's the willingness to learn that's basically that's all you need.

If you have a will to learn, then you are the perfect candidate.

Bye. See you at Accenture!
