

RUHI RANJAN INTRODUCING “CAREER REBOOT” VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

Hi everyone!

I am Ruhi Ranjan, Lead Europe Markets at the Advanced Technology Centres in India, and the Inclusion & Diversity Lead for Accenture in India.

At Accenture we are truly committed to enhancing our gender equality programs, and focusing on bringing together, women professionals who thrive in their careers at Accenture. We do this as we believe that the future workforce will be truly an equitable one.

Today, I am delighted to be welcoming you to a program called as “Career Reboot”. This is an exclusive program for women professionals like you, who have taken a break and looking at reclaiming their careers journeys with organisations like Accenture. Through this program we will equip you for your exciting career journey ahead, through focused interventions, and programs dedicated to help you bridge any skill gaps that you may have in the past few years.

We would be delighted to welcome you either as an intern or a part time employment or a full-time employee at Accenture. You will be part of this wonderful Accenture family and thrive in your careers with Accenture. Looking forward to having you sign up for this program. So do go ahead and join us on this wonderful journey of Career Reboot. Welcoming you to this program – thank you so much!
