Accenture Operations

MELANIE: Awesome. So how is this relevant to our Accenture Operations clients?

CHIP: This whole station is built so that we can learn about new technologies. From 3D printers to IOT devices to even drones and blockchain. We are trying to become comfortable with these technologies so that we can integrate them into our solutions for our clients. We're not just thinking about today or tomorrow, but we're thinking about two, five or even ten years into the future.

MELANIE: Well cool! I'll let you get back to tinkering. Thanks!

CHIP: Great, thanks for stopping by!

MELANIE: I hope you enjoyed meeting part of the team today. If you want to learn more about Accenture Operations, check out the link below.
