Video Transcript

What does Accenture Software for Human Capital Management do?

Accenture Software for HCM has been providing value added plug-in solutions to global organizations for more than a decade. We are witnessing new waves of growth, shifting technology landscapes and changing employee expectations.

As these big changes continue to push companies, and in turn push HR to deliver more value into rethinking their HR and HR IT strategies, we will be at hand to assist these businesses with our set of products and solutions and help them embrace the change.

How does this translate into tangible benefits for companies?

What does this mean in simple terms to companies and their HR practitioners be it from the IT or the business side? Organizational performance is typically at the forefront. Every business wants to reduce costs by strapping their processes tight and contribute to the bottom line. Furthermore, improving internal customer satisfaction and service quality is of paramount importance to all HR Businesses.
