Mathieu Lamboley:

Composer + Pianist

Accenture Strategy presents
Symphonologie: The Music of Business

Mathieu Lamboley - Composer:
I am a composer...my inspiration comes from many places.

It's as simple as what's in front of me – even the sound of the metro.

This project is different.

This time my inspiration comes from technology.

It's a blend of art and science.

Two worlds coming together, to achieve something new.

I never thought a collaboration with an Algorithm could be interesting.

It's sort of mathematics. Patterns that reveal what is underneath.

Words...and feelings...

Bringing them to the surface...

That's the trick.

That's the magic.

Technology and art. Machines and people.

It can be a perfect balance where everything just fits.

What will business and technology do next?
