The global outlook for the Investment Bank industry in 2017 is uncertain. We know that there's a lot of environmental pressures and issues that are beyond the control of individual Investment Banks. One, by partnering in an ecosystem environment, leveraging the capabilities of FinTech investment – Investment Banks will be better placed to take care of the opportunities and challenges that arise. Secondly, by breaking the cycle of simply reducing cost to feed the bottom line but now directing that towards growth initiatives will be very important. These are things we will be quite certain of for 2017.
