MEET DEXTER

One of my big passions is travel. I love meeting new people learning about new cultures and especially eating different foods. I've been to Tibet, the Great Wall, Petra, Egypt is amazing, just seeing a pyramid and walking inside one, it's unreal. I think when you travel you really have to be easy going, cause you dealing with all these different people that have different things as their priorities.

As a Delivery Lead you need to make sure that everyone works together in this cohesive team, typically that involves me working end-to-end across a digital project so that's creative strategy, UX the technology build of it as well as passing on to application outsourcing or managed services.

I've got people who sit in Cloud First which is our Software-as-a-Service practice, I've got people in OG, which is financial services practice, I've got people in digital as well, I really enjoy working with these great intelligent people who are willing to do anything to get the job done, really.

My name is Dexter Liu, I'm a Digital Delivery Lead at Accenture.
