How to Govern New Roles for Business & IT on Cloud Video Transcript

Speaker: Saideep Raj
Accenture Managing Director, Emerging Platforms

It comes down to the different roles that we're seeing across business and IT. Ultimately there are 3 things to meet the challenge.

First of all, is how we optimize these governance models for the pace of change.

Secondly, it's how we set these boundaries for the roles and responsibilities.

And lastly, it's this aspect of how do we create an evolutionary model to sustain the change.

The governance models are about getting the balance right. This new balance in a new reality for how Cloud is driving change in these organizations.
